

UNIVERSITY OF TWENTE. | DIGITAL SOCIETY INSTITUTE

Symposium 7 March 2019 – University of Twente, U-Parkhotel room C3

Our digital society under attack? Let's make it secure!

Program

12:00 – 13:00	Lunch and registration
13:00 – 13:15	Welcome and opening
13:15 – 14:00	Keynote Dr. Melanie Rieback CEO of Radically Open Security
14:00 – 14:45	Short talks <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Dr.ing. Erik Tews University of Twente-EEMCS/SCS 'Breaking an electronic locking system'• Abhishta Abhishta University of Twente-BMS/IEBIS 'Measuring the economic impact of DDoS attacks'• Jasper Hofman Novel-T 'The cybersecurity center for the manufacturing industry'
14:45 – 15:30	Coffee break
15:30 – 16:00	Short talks <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Olivier van der Toorn University of Twente-EEMCS/DACS 'Threat identification using active DNS measurements'• Peter Wagenaar Northwave 'Sneak peek into a fraudster's mind'
16:00 – 16:45	Panel 'A hack for a hack. How far should we go?' moderated by Dr. Andreas Peter University of Twente Panelists: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Melanie Rieback Radically Open Security• Peter Wagenaar Northwave• Dr. Kevin Macnish University of Twente-BMS/Wijsbegeerte• Dr.ir. Roland van Rijswijk-Deij NLnet Labs and University of Twente-EEMCS/DACS
16:45 – 17:00	Closing
17:00 – 18:00	Drinks and networking