

Introduction Faculty Day – Monday 2 February 2026

During this introduction you will receive all the relevant information you need before the start of your studies, including presentations about the educational systems, studying at the UT, and the Psychology programme in particular.

Programme overview

- 10:00 – 11:00: General introduction to the Faculty of Behavioural Management and Social sciences. The information that will be given during this presentation is only essential if you are new to the UT.
Location: UT campus: Waaier 2
- 11:00 - 11:30: break (walk to building the Spiegel, lecture room 1)
- 11:30 – 12:15: Practical matters session for students who are new at the UT. During this session you will receive all the information you need about our educational systems (finding your timetable, enrolling for courses, getting to know the UT, etc.). Please bring your laptop to this session! Location: Spiegel 1
- 12:15 – 13:00: Lunch Broodje kroket (vegetarian, vegan option possible) provided by the study programme of Psychology
Location: Spiegel 1
- 13:00 – 13:10: Information from study association Dimensie about studying Psychology at the UT. Location: Spiegel 1
- 13:15 – 14:15: Presentation about specific information about the master Psychology by the study adviser. Information will be given about the build-up of the programme, the internship and the master thesis. This session is also relevant for students who did their bachelor's at the UT.
Location: UT campus: Spiegel 1