

WRITING CENTRE

The UT Writing Centre is here to support bachelor and master students with their writing. We provide free, individual help with any writing task on any subject at any stage of the writing process.

Whether you are just starting to write or checking that your finished draft flows, we can help you identify areas for improvement and learn new strategies for correcting issues related to structure and language. We can also introduce you to useful resources and tools.

THE WRITING CENTRE OFFERS:

- One-on-one help with Dutch and English texts
- Workshops and courses on academic writing

Come see us during drop-in hours or make an appointment online. Visit www.utwente.nl/utlc or email writingcentre@utwente.nl for more information.

Molly Waite, Writing Centre Coordinator:

'We take a sustainable approach so that students leave the writing centre with the tools they need to become better writers. Each session is a collaborative writing experience.'

Amina Jack, Writing Tutor:

'It's always good to get a different perspective on your writing no matter how small the assignment.'

Apoorva Sonawane, Writing Tutor:

'There is absolutely no reason to be afraid of seeking help and asking questions. We have all been in your shoes and we are happy to help you!'

SKILLS LAB

The UT Skills Lab is here to support bachelor and master students develop as students, individuals, and professionals.

Transferable skills are those which are used in any language and context. For example, intercultural communication skills may help you in a group project, an international work or research setting, or in your personal relationships. Being able to pitch your ideas is useful when communicating your research or project to a general audience, but it also trains you to communicate other complex ideas clearly, whether in your work or personal life.

Our extracurricular workshops and courses are available in Dutch and English and focus on cultivating:

- Study skills
- Communication skills
- Personal and professional skills

Visit www.utwente.nl/utlc to find out more and register for courses such as brain training, intercultural competence, visual thinking, and more!

If you would like to discuss your development, email skills-utlc@utwente.nl for an appointment.

Stefanie Allum, Skills Lab coordinator:

'Developing academic, communication, and professional skills can enhance your experience of university and help you take control of your own development.'
