MEETING CYCLE SEPTEMBER 2022

During the plenary meeting on the 21st of September 2022 a number of important topics were discussed. This newsletter contains a reflection of the discussions on the following topics: the Masterplan Sportsculture, the English Entry requirements at the UT, the Enrolment regulations at the UT, the UT Election regulations for the UC, FC and SC and the application fee from pilot to regular business at the faculty EEMCS.

MASTERPLAN SPORTSCULTURE

growing student numbers

The University Council received an update on the masterplan sports & culture, which aims to keep the sports and culture facilities of the UT up to date with rising demand. The first step considered is the installation of temporary facilities by means of an indoor sports, dancing and gym hall.

APPLICATION FEE FROM PILOT TO REGULAR BUSINESS AT EEMCS

The UC was presented with the proposal to turn the application fee pilot, which has been going on for a year, into common practice. The council agreed with the proposal, as programs could determine themselves if they find the fee needed yes or no. The council had one point, which was that additional effort should be done to refund all students who were part of the pilot, as this was promised to them.

SELECTION MASTER SPECIALISATION POSITIVE CLINICAL PSYCHOLOGY AND TECHNOLOGY

Quality programme

The University Council was asked to give advice on the selection procedure for the Psychology Master specialisation Positive Clinical Psychology and Technology (PCPT). This academic year, it was the first time that selection took place for this specialisation.

UT ENROLMENT REGULATIONS

Communication to students

During the September cycle, the Council was presented with the concept Enrolment Regulations for 2023 - 2024 and the concept Selection and Placement Regulations for 2023 - 2024. Although these were not the most exciting documents to review at first glance, it was of course worthwhile to critically assess them.
