

Advanced Technology

Participation in large multidisciplinary project: approval & registration

Approval for this course from the examination board is needed in order to be part of the bachelor exam

Please submit this form to BOZ-AT

Course code : 20200155

Title of the course : AT Participation in large multidisciplinary project

Description of the course: Advanced Technology professionals are essential for large multidisciplinary projects, such as the Green team, Solar Challenge or the Robot soccer team projects. At the university these projects are performed and organized by students. Advanced Technology professionals are part of these teams and use their knowledge of electronics, control, system design, circuits, communication systems and signal theory in these projects. In case the tasks of individual students is deepening the advanced technology aspects of the project, this work can be done within this module in the bachelor program.

Student number :

Last name: :

First name(s) total :

AT-examiner: :

written report other

Title: :

Description :

Total EC's¹ : EC

Signatures:

Student
name:

AT-examiner
name:

Examination board
name:

date:

date:

date:

¹ The project should be at least 15 EC (420 hours study load)

Assessment and registration of AT Participation in Large Multidisciplinary Project

Study load (EC's):

Course code:

Grade:

Feedback:

Signature:

Examiner name:

Signature:

Date: