Andreas Warntjen/Arndt Wonka (eds.)
Governance in Europe - The Role of Interest Groups
Baden-Baden: Nomos, 2004

Table of Contents

1. Arndt Wonka/Andreas Warntjen
   The Making of Public Policies in the European Union:
   Linking Theories of Formal Decision-making and Informal Interest Intermediation

2. Volker Schneider
   State Theory, Governance and the Logic of Regulation and Administrative Control

3. Madeleine O. Hosli/Andreas Noelke/Jan Beyers
   Contending Political-Economy Perspectives on European Interest Group Activity

4. B. Guy Peters
   Interest Groups and European Governance: A Normative Perspective

5. Amanda Sloat
   Governance in the Making: The Future of the EUs (Thought) Experiment

6. Irina Michalowitz
   Lobbying as a Two-way Strategy: Interest Intermediation or Mutual Instrumentalisation?

7. Christian H.C.A. Henning
   Modelling the Political Influence of Interest Groups: Theory and Empirical Evidence from European Agricultural Policy

8. Christine Arnold/Paul Pennings
   Recent Developments in EU-level Social Policy-Making and Corporatist Governance

9. Gerald Schneider/Konstantin Baltz
   Specialization pays off: Interest Group Influence on EU Prenegotiations in four Member States

10. Jan-Erik Lane/Svante Ersson
    The Impact of Trade Unions on Social Policy in EU Member States