

Outside-In: Tracing the Imprint of the European Union's External Actions on Its Constitutional Landscape
– Exploratory Workshop –
Friday 15 June 2012

University of Amsterdam, Room A 1.01, Oudemanhuispoort 4-6, 1012 CN Amsterdam

Programme

9:00 Registration and Coffee

9:20 Welcome: Christina Eckes

9:30 Session 1 – chair: Ramses Wessel

Piet Eeckhout – ‘The Constitutionalization of EU Foreign Policy’

Chris Bickerton – ‘Outside-in or inside-out? Foreign policy and institutional change in the EU’

11:00 Coffee break

11:15 Session 2 – chair: Piet Eeckhout

Anne Thies – ‘The implications of the Member States’ obligation to speak with one voice in international fora for (their equality in) EU decision-making’

Christophe Hillion – ‘Enlargement and evolution of EU constitutional law’

Pieter-Jan Kuijper – ‘Influence of WTO law and DS reports on EU law’

13:00 Lunch

14:30 Session 3 – chair: Christophe Hillion

Deirdre Curtin – ‘External Relations and EU Executive Power: Inside-Out?’

Ramses Wessel – ‘The EU’s Planned Diplomatic Activities: External Demands for the Internal Set-Up’

15:45 Coffee break

16:00 Session 4 – chair: Pieter-Jan Kuijper

Elaine Fahey – ‘Transatlantic Security Spillover: How EU-US Relations Impact on the EU Legal Order’

Christina Eckes – ‘Outside-In: How International Environmental Law Shapes the EU’s Constitutional Landscape’

17:15 Reception

---

Thursday, 14 June 2012, at 19.00 Conference Dinner – restaurant Oriental 128