

Project code: SO – Iranian Cheetah Conservation

Short description of the project:

Simba Nature Protection and Education Foundation (www.ngosimba.nl) intends to undertake, in cooperation with other organisations, several traffic related projects to help save the Iranian Cheetah from extinction.

- Placing traffic signs on the side of roads to warn drivers for crossing cheetahs and other wildlife
- Building wildlife viaducts to help wildlife cross roads safely

Project code SO - Knowledge centre livestock farming with care

Short description of the project:

Stichting Simba Nature Protection and Education Foundation (www.ngosimba.nl) intends to establish knowledge centres for livestock farming with care in Iran.

- Earthquake proof
- Water, electricity etc. is supplied completely by renewable energy sources such as air to water technology, solar technology and wind energy
- Environmental friendly techniques for waste water of the centres, recycling of other waste etc.
- Adjusted to the specific climate in the area of the centre
- European standards
- Affordable and a design suitable for the specific landscape surrounding the centre

Project code SO – Knowledge centre agriculture

Short description of the project:

Stichting Simba Nature Protection and Education Foundation (www.ngosimba.nl) intends to establish knowledge centres for agriculture in Iran.

- Earthquake proof
- Water, electricity etc. is supplied completely by renewable energy sources such as air to water technology, solar technology and wind energy
- Environmental friendly techniques for waste water of the centre, recycling of other waste etc.
- Adjusted to the specific climate in the area of the centre
- European standards
- Affordable and a design suitable for the specific landscape surrounding the centre

Project code SO – Animal Shelter / dog training centre

Short description of the project:

Stichting Simba Nature Protection and Education Foundation (www.ngosimba.nl) intends to establish several animal shelters / dog training centres for domestic animals such as dogs, cats, small rodents etc. in Iran. Occasionally also larger animals such as horses and donkeys will find refuge in the shelters.

- Earthquake proof
- Water, electricity etc. is supplied completely by renewable energy sources such as air to water technology, solar technology and wind energy
- Environmental friendly techniques for waste water of the centre, recycling of other waste etc.
- European standards
- Affordable
- A pleasant park environment suitable for the specific landscape surrounding the shelter / dog training centre where visitors can enjoy their day

Project code SO – Quashqai safari centre

Short description of the project:

Simba Nature Protection and Education Foundation (www.ngosimba.nl) has been approached by the nomadic Quashqai tribe to help establish breeding facilities for endangered local species of animals combined with environmental friendly tourism where tourists can experience the nomadic lifestyle of the Quashqai.

Water, electricity etc. is supplied completely by renewable energy sources such as air to water technology, solar technology and wind energy

- Environmental friendly techniques for waste water of the centre, recycling of other waste etc.
- Adjusted to the specific climate in the area, both in winter and summer
- Affordable and a design suitable for the specific landscape surrounding the centre