Communication & Marketing Internship

WE'RE PROBABLY ONE OF THE MOST INTERNATIONAL TEAMS OF OUR SIZE.

About us:

We are a team of international hackers, business hustlers and creative brains backed by the world's most renowned startup accelerator, Y Combinator. We are on a mission to change the way people can learn and develop themselves in the work place.

We care deeply about creating a tool that people want to use. As well as making a product people love, we also care about challenging and developing ourselves personally and professionally. Our team is comprised of people from 12 different countries all over the globe. Join our fun, ambitious team today!

Job description:

We're looking for a proactive person to join our team and work on the creation of a community of HR (tech) leaders and influencers that will then participate in a series of events. The successful candidate would take ownership and be in charge from day 1 on all the duties related to the HRTech project. You would manage the HRTech social media channels, engage with influencers and thought leaders, identify which ones would be a good fit for the event. Moreover, you will work together with our team on the organisation of the events from day one. This is an exciting opportunity for those who want to grow and develop their careers in a company that doesn't know about limits! You'll have plenty of freedom to be proactive and bring new ideas and insights to the team! You will also be mentored and coached by our team members, ensuring that besides hard work you also get good insights from the process.

Requirements:

- Student or recent graduate (both Bachelor or Master)
- Fluent in English & Dutch (Exclusive)
- Previous working experience (Not exclusive) in Events, Social Media, Communications or Marketing
- Excellent oral and written communication skills.
- High confidence with social media (mainly Twitter, LinkedIn)
- Knowledge and dominance of social media tools
- You're fast, get things done and keep on trying hard to reach your goal
- You have a passion to understand people and HR issues
- You're proactive and independent, but also know when to ask for help
- Knowledge of Google docs and Excel
- Strong passion to learn and develop professionally

Your Role:

- Find, list and track influences and publications that are relevant in the HR and business world
- Build relationships with bloggers, influencers and opinion leaders in the HR industry by engaging with them on social media and their publications
- Reach out to our network of partners, investors and friends to get them to participate in our events.
- Social media management: Build up a brand new community of HR leaders and influencers from scratch
- Event planning and executing

What we're offering:

- Work in a hip and beautiful office in the center of Amsterdam in an international environment with smart and ambitious colleagues from all over the world
- You will have the opportunity to participate in a brand new project from scratch, giving you the chance to make an impact and learn a lot
- You will get to know a lot of new tools
- High level of responsibility
- Learn from a great team
- Full time position (40h p/w)
- Internship duration 6 months
- Compensation 400 Euro/month
- Free lunch provided at the office

Please send your CV and motivation letter to Matias@impraise.com, we're looking forward to hearing from you!
