

Supply Chain department Internship

So, what will I actually be doing?

One of the most vital positions within any business is any role relating to the supply chain. It is vital to ensure a steady flow of products coming into a company, that customer have a wide range of products to choose from, and that suppliers have enough stock to deal with demand.

Helping to transfer products from the our supply center to the customer's warehouse, site, local central warehouse & retail door, this vital role makes sure delivery on time and structural.

There are a range of job titles available in supply chains, and if you start in a junior role your daily duties may include:

- Planning delivery order
- Ensuring finish goods ship out with short ITO
- Creating invoice for Export & Import of Non-EU countries
- Making sure suppliers have enough capacity for booking
- Overseeing the ordering and packaging process
- Monitoring delivery levels
- Tracking products through depots to make sure they arrive at their destination
- Overseeing arrival of shipments

Overseeing the distribution process every step of the way, you'll also be keeping an eye on our supplier to make sure the products dispatched and delivery on time

A very hands-on role, you'll need to enjoy working in large teams, as you'll constantly be liaising with warehouse staff and transport clerks to ensure a smooth process.
