

BEST SPORTER

I am a future ice skater and fun and achievement are two important values that motivate me to work towards my goals. My goal is to win a competition and be the first one for the first time. By using the help of my teammates at the ice-skating hall we can get each other to a better level.