

Due to a sudden decision of the management of the Eden Hotel Group to rebuild two floors of the Eden Dish hotel, the hotel will only have 52 rooms available in stead of 103 rooms from the 1st of June 2007.

This decision has direct influence on a lot of the bookings that have already been made, and we are very sorry to inform you this is also the case for the reservations for the IMST Conference.

All our guests which we have booked in to other hotels (Eden Star in Hengelo and Eden Hotel de Broeierd in Enschede) have already received a new confirmation from the hotel they are booked in now.

As far as transportation, we will arrange some kind of transportation for the guests who have been booked in these hotels. We will inform these guests by email.

Again we are very sorry for the inconvenience.

With kind regards,
Eden Dish Hotel Enschede
