

UNIVERSITEIT TWENTE.

LIBRARY, ICT SERVICES & ARCHIVE (LISA)

Our reference LISA-0185

Date January 9, 2018

Terms and Conditions of the Library of the University of Twente, including application for a library card.

1. The Library is open to persons who are in possession of a valid library card. This card must be produced on request.
2. Library cards are available at the Servicedesk UB in the University Library.
3. Employees and students have access to the library with their student or staff card.
4. These cards have the function of library card. The validity of a card expires when the employee or student has left the University of Twente.
5. Students of Saxion Hogescholen receive a library card on presentation of their student card at a reduced rate. For employees of Saxion Hogescholen the library card is free of charge on presentation of their Saxion's employee card.
6. The University of Twente provides a free library card to retired employees.
7. A special national agreement applies to employees and students from other universities in the Netherlands.
8. Other interested parties can obtain a library card for a fee of €15.
9. Identification is required when submitting an application form.
10. On submitting an application form the user agrees to accept the Library Code of Practice. The UT is not responsible for the consequences due to abuse of the library card by third parties.
11. The director of LISA can deny access to the library, detailing the reason in a registered mail, sanctioned by the Executive Board.
12. It is possible to appeal against the rule mentioned in point 11 above; within the legally determined period, to the Executive Board.