

NIG ANNUAL WORK CONFERENCE 2009

Leiden University, Leiden, 12-13 November 2009

Panel 6: The Evolving Institutional Balance in the European Union

Organizers:

Martijn Groenleer (Delft University) & Dimiter Toshkov (Leiden University)

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM

Paper presentations should last 15 minutes. Discussants have 10 minutes for comments. Responses from the paper givers and open discussion should last another 15 minutes.

Thursday, 12 November 2009, 13.30-17.30

Madeleine Hosli (Leiden University)

“Negotiating the European Constitutional Treaty: Government Preferences for Council Decision Rules”

Discussant: Andreas Warntjen (Twente University)

Dimiter Toshkov (Leiden University)

“Public Opinion and Policy Output in the EU: A Lost Relationship”

Discussant: Rory Costello (Twente University)

Andreas Warntjen (Twente University)

“Measuring Salience in EU Politics”

Discussant: Brendan Carroll (Leiden University)

Rory Costello (Twente University)

“Why so much agreement? How nationality shapes inter-institutional relations in the European Union”

Discussant: Madeleine Hosli (Leiden University)

Michael Kaeding (EIPA)

“Equipping Europe for the future: The efficiency and effectiveness of the formal and informal European Lamfalussy governance structure”

Discussant: Aneta Spendzharova (Maastricht University)

Friday, 13 November 2009, 9.30-13.00

Brendan Carroll (Leiden University)

“Implementation and policy learning in European environmental policy”

Discussant: Michael Kaeding (EIPA)

Antoaneta Dimitrova & Bernard Steunenberg (Leiden University)

“Europeanisation 2.0: The implementation of culture policy in Bulgaria”

Discussant: Ellen Mastebroek (Nijmegen University)

Aneta Spendzharova (Maastricht University)

“Europeanization or Transnationalism? Institutionalizing Banking Sector Regulation in Bulgaria and Hungary”

Discussant: Antoaneta Dimitrova (Leiden University)

Patrick Overeem (Leiden University)

“An Administrative State without a State: The Constitutional Legitimacy of EU Executive Power”

Discussant: Berry Tholen (Nijmegen University)

Ellen Mastebroek & Berry Tholen (Nijmegen University)

“Between a rock and a hard place? Civil servants and contradicting ethical demands”

Discussant: Patrick Overeem (Leiden University)