

Program NIG meeting on Water Governance

Thursday November 25, 2010

Moderator/chair: Prof.dr. Stefan Kuks

1. Jurian Edelenbos – presenting idea of a book on Water Governance and draft introduction chapter “Water Governance as Connective Capacity” (Edelenbos)
2. Art De Wulf – Governance capabilities for achieving small wins in wicked water issues (De Wulf, Termeer, Breeman, Werkman)
3. Joanne Vinke-de Kruijf - Water governance in Romania (Vinke-de Kruijf, Kuks, Augustijn)
4. Mansee Bal - Water governance in Holland and India with respect to river management and lake management (van Ast, Bal)
5. Peter Scholten - Water Connections: A review of Payment for Watershed Services schemes from a governance perspective (Scholten, de Groot)
6. Jeroen Warner - Transboundary governance on the river Scheldt Connective capacity in complex decision-making processes (Warner)

Friday, November 26, 2010

Moderator/chair: Prof.dr. Jurian Edelenbos

1. Simon Verduijn - ‘New’ waterdiscourses present in the IJsselmeer area? (Verduijn)
2. Qiqi Zhou/Igor Mayer - The role of simulation gaming for connective capacity building (Zhou, Mayer)
3. Ingmar van Meerkerk – Complexity embracing strategies in water governance projects in The Netherlands (Van Meerkerk, Edelenbos)
4. Miriam Cuppen - The influence of ‘connective capacity’ on the legitimacy of flood management (Cuppen, Pardoe)
5. Nanny Bressers - Short-term versus long-term challenges in multi-actor water projects (Bressers, Deelstra)