

Program panel 4: Interest Groups and the Policy Process:
 Revisiting Research on State-Society Relations in Multi-layered Political Systems
 Chairs: Jan Beyers and Caelesta Braun-Poppelaars
 Discussant: Arco Timmermans
 NIG Conference
 25 and 26 November 2010
 NH Hotel Maastricht

Friday, November 26 th 2009
09.30-11.00	Markus Haverland: The European Union and Dutch Government-Business Relations. From corporatism to statism? Joost Berkhout: An exchange theory of the activities of interest organizations break
11.30 – 13.00	Jan Beyers and Caelesta Braun-Poppelaars: Ties that Count. Explaining interest group access to policy makers Anne Rasmussen: Policy Agendas and Interest Group Activity in Denmark, the Netherlands and the United Kingdom
13.00	lunch

Participants
Joost Berkhout	University of Amsterdam	d.j.berkhout@uva.nl
Jan Beyers	University of Antwerp	Jan.beyers@ua.ac.be Caelesta Braun-Poppelaars	University of Antwerp	Caelesta.poppelaars@ua.ac.be
Claudia Engelmann	Maastricht University	c.engelmann@maastrichtuniversity.nl
Sevgi Gunay	Leiden University	sgunay@fsw.leidenuniv.nl
Markus Haverland	Erasmus University Rotterdam	haverland@fsw.eur.nl
Ton Horrevorts		horrevorts@hmsmanagement.nl
Max Laven
Anne Rasmussen	Leiden University	rasmussena@fsw.leidenuniv.nl
Arco Timmermans	Leiden University	atimmermans@fsw.leidenuniv.nl