

Strategic HRM in the public sector and public values

Panel at the NIG annual work conference
Rotterdam, Friday 2 December 2011

Programme

	Paper		Discussant
9.00-9.30	Eva Knies & Peter Leisink	Can public sector middle managers make a difference?	Trui Steen
9.30-10.00	Laura den Dulk, Brenda Vermeeren & Bram Steijn	'New ways of working' in the Dutch public sector	Aline Bos
10.00-10.30	Carina Schott, Daphne van Kleef & Trui Steen	Double Bind: professionals coping with contrasting demands and conflicting values	Laura den Dulk
10.30-11.00	Nina van Loon	What about fit? A theoretical exploration of the relevance of person-environment fit theory in research on public service motivation.	Bram Steijn
11.00-11.15	Coffee break
11.15-11.45	Aline Bos & Paul Boselie	Private equity in the public domain: "Show me the money"	Carina Schott
11.45-12.15	Laura den Dulk & Sandra Groeneveld	State and workplace work-life balance support in Europe: comparing the public and private sector	Paul Boselie
12.15-12.45	Lars Tummers & Laura den Dulk	Meaningful work for a meaningful life? Examining the influence of experienced meaningfulness in work for work-family enrichment	Wouter Vandenabeele