

Effects, what effects? On the (un)intended effects of public sector reforms

Chairs: Sebastian Jilke (EUR), Sjors Overman (RU), Sorin Dan (KUL) & Astrid Molenveld (KUL)

Paper presentations will take 20 minutes, followed by a 10 minutes Q&A session from the audience

PROGRAMME

November 28, 2013

13:30 - 15:30

Session I

Introduction

Kutsal Yesilkagit: There is more than life and death: Estimating agency duration models with competing risk data

Sjors Overman: Comparing accountability effects across 20 countries

Astrid Molenveld & Koen Verhoest: Coordination of austerity measures in strongly agencified governments in the aftermath of the global financial crisis: Strict coupling in an era of New Public governance?

15:30 – 16:00

BREAK

16:00 – 17:00

Session II

Jan Boon & Koen Verhoest: On a Diet: Understanding differences in reported overhead between Flemish public agencies

Judith Clifton, Daniel Diaz-Fuentes & Marcos Fernandez-Guiterrez: The new world of public infrastructure: analysis from the consumer perspective

November 29, 2013

10:00 – 11:30

Session III

Brenda Vermeeren & Joris van der Voet: (How) does public management reform affect employee wellbeing? Evidence from the Dutch public sector

Dion Curry: The crystal ball of public administration reform: What future predictions tell us about the present

Final discussion