

NIG 2014: panel 13: Co-production and citizen participation

Chaired by: dr. Marlies Honingh (RU), prof. dr. Taco Brandsen (RU), dr. Trui Steen (UL-CDH), prof. dr. Bram Verschuere (Universiteit Gent), prof. dr. Albert Meijer (UU).

To ensure a vivid debate and full commitment of all participants we ask all participants to present the work of somebody else within 5 minutes. Of course the author of the paper will have the opportunity to react on the presentation. In the scheme names and rolls are provided.

- 14:00 Introduction
 14:05-14:10 Presentation 1.
Paper written by Voorberg et al., This paper will be presented by Van Kleef & Van Eijk.
 14:10-14:20 Reaction: Voorberg et al.
 14:15-14:25 Discussion
- 14:25 Presentation 2 (5 minutes; reaction 5 minutes, discussion 10 minutes)
 14:45 Presentation 3
 15:05 Presentation 4
 15:25 Presentation 5
15:45-16:00 Break
- 16:00 Presentation 6
 16:20 Presentation 7
 16:40 Presentation 8
 17:00 Presentation 9
 17:20 Discussion
 18:00 End of the session

	Title	Presentation	Reaction
	Session 14:00-15:45
1	The keys to successful Co-creation	Van Kleef & Van Eijk	Voorberg et al.
2	Distinguishing different types of co-production: renewing our understanding of the classics	Bartels	Brandsen & Honingh
3	Co-production as a New Social Contract	Van Eijk & Steen	Meijer
4	Learning to co-produce? –The perspective of public service professionals	Fledderus	Tuurnas
5	Innovative Neighborhood Practices	Meijer	Bartels
	Session 16:00-18:00
6	Evolution of community Self-organization	Brandsen & Honingh	Edelenbos et al.
7	Empirical approach to concept using NVWA	Tuurnas	Van Kleef & Van Eijk
8	User Co-production of Public Service Delivery- exploring Mechanisms and Conditions	Edelenbos et al.	Fledderus
9	Survey research clientcouncils health care	Voorberg et al.	Van Eijk & Steen