

UT FLEX 2.0 TYPE OF JOBS

Work as a student-assistant?

The content of a job as student assistant is always related to education and/or research. Opening a job as student assistant is therefore only for the faculties. After all, that is where education and research take place. However, first year students cannot be employed as a student assistant! The student will receive an UT FLEX employment in case of a job as student assistant.

Work as an on-call worker?

The content of a job as an on-call worker has a general character and is not related to education and/or research. Opening a job as on-call worker is both for faculties and services. All students can be employed as an on-call worker. The student will receive an UT FLEX employment in case of a job as an on-call worker.

Work through Volunteer Scheme (VWR)?

The activities of a job that runs through the volunteer scheme are very simple and occasional. For example, providing information, distributing flyers, offering support during events, conducting surveys etc. These activities only take place a few times per year. The student will not receive an UT flex employment in case of a job through the volunteer scheme.

What is the student going to earn?

Student assistant: the hourly wage is determined by the number of earned ECTS and it differs from € 12.42 gross per hour (student assistantship level 2) to € 14.48 gross per hour (student assistantship level 4). In addition, the monthly holiday benefit (8%), end-of-year bonus (8,3%) and the compensation for severance payment are paid together with the monthly salary. Furthermore, the holiday leave is calculated as an allowance (11,72%) on the gross hourly wage.

On-call worker: the hourly wage is set at € 10.19 (salary scale 1-0). In addition, the monthly holiday benefit (8%), end-of-year bonus (8,3%) and the compensation for severance payment are paid together with the monthly salary. Furthermore, the holiday leave is calculated as an allowance (11,72%) on the gross hourly wage.

Compensation through volunteer scheme: a maximum of € 141 per month, a maximum of € 1,700 per year.