<td>Recording in the lecture hall</td>
<td>If you are on the campus providing your lecture Face-2-Face with on-campus students you might decide to record your lecture for sharing afterwards with students who weren't there, or if you and/or other people want to use the recording for reflection and evaluation of the meeting.</td>
<td>There are 100 lecture halls equipped with a Logitech webcam on a tripod and a speaker/microphone making it possible to record your lecture with the OBS recording system.</td>
<td>- Be aware of the GDPR rules: https://www.utwente.nl/en/cybersafety/privacy/gdpr/. Place you camera on a spot where students aren't visible. Or ask them for permission. - Place the camera on a spot where you have good light. - Also, the speaker needs to be on the desk near the lecturer to get the best sound for the recording. - There is a small delay between image and sound if you record the session.</td>
<td>Servicedesk of the building of the lecture hall https://www.utwente.nl/en/service-portal/services/cfm/about-us-contact/#servicedesk-in-buildings</td>
