

Evaluation report Product Design

The evaluation committee has evaluated the course Product Design by sending an online questionnaire to 50 students. 16 students filled in the questionnaire, which gives a response of 32%.

The overall appreciation for the course Product Design is marked with a 6.8, slightly beneath the required 7 for a master course. Students find the learning outcome not relevant (5.9), the contents not very interesting (6.8) and are not satisfied with the exam procedure. Positive marks are given for the availability of the teacher for questions (8.0), lecture organization (8.0) and the quality of the study material (7.3).

These are the main conclusions of the evaluation. The interpretation is based on the remarks of the respondents. For an overview of the results, see the graph at the end of this report.

Recommendations by the committee:

It appears that the quality of the course can be improved. Therefore, the evaluation committee makes a recommendation:

- Make the course more challenging. For a master course a certain level is expected by students. In the comments of the evaluation students complain about the fact that the course is too easy.
- Make the requirements for the examination clear. Students do not know exactly what is expected to do and how this will be rewarded.

Remarkable Facts:

- 2 students thought there was not sufficient time to complete the course. 7 students thought they had too much time, 7 students thought there was sufficient time.

Overview:

- Most marks are given on a scale from 1-5 and converted to a scale from 2-10 by multiplying with a factor 2. Therefore, a mark of 6.0 or higher is sufficient.
- The height of the bars in the graph represents the mark. The thin line at the top of the bars gives the standard deviation.
- Tempo of lecture grades: 2 is too fast, 6 is perfect, 10 is too slow.
