

Evaluation report: Human Movement Control – 2012/2013

The evaluation committee has evaluated the course Human Movement Control by coming to the last college. According to Blackboard, 36 students did this course. 11 students filled in the questionnaire, which gives a response of 30.6%.

The overall appreciation of this course is rated with a 7.6, which is above the required 7.0 for a master course, and a great improvement from 2010/2011 (6.5). All aspects are rated 8 or higher, except the suitability for self study (6.6) and the clearness of the questions (7.6). It is a well organized course, with an enthusiastic teacher, but there are a lot of comments on the time this course takes.

These are the main conclusions of the evaluation. The interpretation is based on the remarks of the respondents. For an overview of the results, see the graph at the end of this report.

Recommendations by the committee:

The quality of the course can be improved. Based on the results of the questionnaire, some recommendations for improvement are provided. The most important recommendations are:

- Try to evaluate the different parts of this course. Find out what is really the core of this course and focus of that by giving other subjects less attention or abandon them
- Re-arrange information. The course was not always clear, because of illogically arranged information and wrong numeration.

Remarkable Facts:

- Many students note that the learning method works, but is very time-consuming.

Overview:

- Most marks are given on a scale from 1-5 and converted to a scale from 2-10 by multiplying with a factor 2. For master courses, a mark of 7.0 or higher is sufficient.
- The height of the bars in the graph represents the mark. The thin line at the top of the bars gives the standard deviation.
